This Privacy Policy explains the information that Fett for House campaign collects, uses, shares, and discloses with respect to the use of Fett for House website. Fett for House reserves the right to change the provisions of this Policy at any time for any reason. Please review this Policy from time to time to make sure that you understand it and any changes. This Privacy Policy may change at any time. If we make any changes to our privacy practices, we will post a revised Privacy Policy on this page, as well as the effective date of the change. By accessing or using the website/mobile application, you accept the terms of this Privacy Policy. If you have any questions about this Policy or the use of your information by Fett for House, please contact us by emailing fettforhouse@gmail.com or writing to Fett for House, 13502 Delaware Street, Carlisle, IA 50047

1. What is Personal Information? For purposes of the use of Fett for House website, Personal Information means information that specifically identifies and individual, such as their name, address, telephone number, cell phone number, email address, voter registration history, or credit card number as well as information about your activities on this site when it is linked with other information that would enable a reader to identify you. Personal Information does not include aggregate data that we collect about the use of our website or about a group or category of services or users, from which identifying information about the user has been removed. The collection of such aggregate information is in no way limited or restricted by this policy.
2. Information collected automatically: When you use our website, we may automatically collect and store information about your computer or mobile device and your activities. This information may include your mobile device's unique ID number, your mobile device's geographic location while the app is actively running, your computer's IP address, technical information about your computer or mobile device (such as type of device, web browser or operating system), your preferences and settings (time zone, language, privacy preferences, product preferences, etc.), the URL of the last web page you visited before coming to one of our sites, the buttons, controls and ads you clicked on (if any), how long you used our website or app and which services and features you used.
3. Information you provide: Whenever you voluntarily disclose personal information on publicly-viewable screens or pages, that information will be publicly available and can be collected and used by others. For example, if you post your email address, you may receive unsolicited messages. We cannot control who reads your posting or what other users may do with the information you voluntarily post, so we encourage you to exercise discretion and caution with respect to your personal information. You may also (but are not required to) provide information about yourself (such as your gender, ethnicity, location, URL, political viewpoints, mailing address, phone number, or a biography). This information may be provided as part of the registration process, by volunteering, or responding to a survey. This information may be used by us in accordance with this policy and will be treated as confidential personal information. Any additional image or information you provide may be publicly displayed. If you wish, we will delete your account information; to do so, please close your account by sending an email to fettforhouse@gmail.com
4. Information about others: We may access, collect, and store personal information about other people that is available to us through your contact list and/or address book. The website and mobile app allows users to complete contact information for entries on their contact list/address book, match their information with information available from other sources, and identify issues of interest. To revoke your consent for this access, you can change the settings on your device if that option is available, delete your profile, or delete or uninstall the mobile app from your device.
5. How we use your information: We use your information to provide and improve our services, award loyalty points to you, make special offers, customize services for you, better understand our users, or diagnose and fix problems.
6. Geo-location information: While the Fett for House application is in use, we may keep track of your device's geographic location so that we can connect you to other Cruz Crew users based on your particular geographic location.

7. Use of your information by others: Except as described below, we will not share your personal information with other companies or organizations. What information we make available to other organizations depends on the nature of our relationships with them. Examples of circumstances in which we would share personal information include:
  1. Service Providers: We may share all of the types of information we collect with vendors, consultants or service providers who provide services to us and who require access to such information to carry out their work.
  2. Aligned Organizations: We may share your information with other organizations, groups, causes, campaigns or political organizations that we believe have similar viewpoints, principles or objectives to us.
  3. Analytics Companies: We allow analytics companies to use tracking technologies to collect information about our users' computers or mobile devices and their online activities. These companies analyze this information to help us understand how our sites and apps are being used. Analytics companies may use mobile device IDs, as described in the paragraph below ("Mobile device IDs"). Unlike cookies, device IDs cannot be deleted.
  4. Mobile device IDs: In order to recognize you, store your preferences, and track your use of our application, we may store your mobile device IDs (the unique identifier assigned to a device by the manufacturer) when you use the Fett for House application. Unlike cookies, device IDs cannot be deleted.
  5. Aggregated Information: We may publicly disclose aggregated information about our users, such as the total number of our users and their overall demographics.
  6. Legal matters: We may disclose any information: in response to a legal request, such as a subpoena, court order, or government demand; to investigate or report illegal activity; or to enforce our rights or defend claims.
  7. With Your Consent: If you consent to the sharing of certain information, including information you enter during the registration process or while using the application, we may share that information consistent with the consent you provide.

We are not responsible for the actions of any service providers or other third parties, nor are we responsible for any additional information you provide directly to any third parties. Before disclosing information to any organization, we encourage you to familiarize yourself with their privacy policy. Nothing herein restricts the sharing of aggregated or anonymized information, which may be shared with third parties without your consent.

8. What we don't share: We do not provide third parties with your name, address, email address, or phone number, except as provided herein as described above, in "Use of your information by others".
9. Children's privacy

We do not allow persons under 13 to register for any service, and we do not knowingly collect any personally identifiable information from persons under the age of 13.

10. Information from users outside the United States: If you're outside the United States, your information will be sent to and stored in the United States, where our servers are located. By using our website, you agree to the information collection, use, and sharing practices described in this Privacy Policy.
11. SMS Disclaimer
